

Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai Scholarship Application Coversheet

One $1000 scholarship will be awarded each year at the Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai's Annual Picnic. The successful applicant will be selected from the applications received by the Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai Officers, subject to the requirements listed below.

Eligibility Requirements

All applicants must meet the following requirements in order to be considered for our scholarship.

1. Applicants should be current high school seniors enrolling in an undergraduate program at an accredited college or university or in cases where there are no qualified High School Senior applications, undergraduate students in their freshman or sophomore years of college may apply. College applicants will only be considered if there are no qualified High School Senior applicants by the cutoff date for application submissions.
2. Applicants must submit a 500 – 1000 word essay detailing their aspirations for the future and how the award of this scholarship will help them contribute to the Uchinanchu community. Our Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai has a goal of keeping Okinawan culture and traditions alive for future generations. This is the primary reason this scholarship was created for the youth associated with our Okinawa Kenjinkai. Please include how the award of this scholarship "to you" would help us carry out this goal. Lastly, include any involvement you've had with the Okinawan arts or culture. You should also include your parents' involvement in our Kenjinkai. Sell yourself and make us believe we are choosing the very best applicant.
3. Applicants must provide an official school transcript from their current school indicating that they carry at least a 3.0 grade point average or higher. This transcript must be submitted along with your scholarship application and essay, through the US Postal Service.
4. Applicant must be of Okinawan descent or be related to an active Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai member, who has been with our Kenjinkai for a minimum of three years. The applicant or the applicant's family must be a "Member in good standing" in order to be considered for this scholarship. Please indicate who your connection is to our Kenjinkai on your application.
5. The application deadline for our next award is April 30th, 2020. Therefore all applicants wishing to apply for this scholarship must send their application through the US Postal Service with a post mark no later than April 30th, 2020 to be considered for the award.
6. Previous recipients are not eligible to apply.

The Chicago Okinawa Kenjinkai believes in equal opportunity for all our members. Decisions made by our leadership are always made with the best interests of every member of our organization in mind. Discrimination and harassment based on race, color, religion or belief, national, social, or ethnic origin, sex, age, physical, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, is never a factor in our decisions. Scholarship decisions are based solely on the criteria listed on this coversheet. The successful applicant will be the one who has the best individual qualifications and shows the most potential in helping us meet our goals of preserving the culture and traditions of Okinawa and the Uchinanchu people.
